INTRODUCTION

FARKAS VIKTÓRIA

My passion is to capture the beauty of the world — from the grandeur of architecture to the quiet moments of nature, from the power of movement to the depth of human emotions.

I am a multiple award-winning photographer. My works are valued at 1,000–1,500 euros by international auction experts and museum curators, recognising their artistic and collector's value.

My fine art prints on archival paper with archival inks preserve their beauty for decades.
